

AFRICAN PRISONS PROJECT

Director of Development – Legal Services

Description

About the African Prisons Project

The African Prisons Project (APP) is a community of people passionate about putting the power of the law into the hands of the poor. APP is working to create more just societies by providing high quality, low cost legal services through legal aid/public defender services to people in prison. APP is working towards having 30,000 prisoners released by the courts, through receiving legal services from those trained by APP within the prison system. APP is also working towards changing national laws each year and also having their graduates move into positions where they make and implement the law.

APP works alongside prisoners and staff who choose each day to use their lives, and the resources they have, to help and support others.

APP works across three key areas:

1. Justice Changemaker Training
2. Justice Changemaker Services
3. Improving Prison Conditions

African Prisons Project has a Christian ethos which leads the organisation to serve all regardless of their religion, background, offence, sentence, race, gender or any other factor. APP believes every person's life is fundamentally valuable—and the past need not define their future. APP is inspired by Jesus' example of bringing justice and compassion to those rejected by society and seeing great value in those that others' have written off.
