

International Director of Impact and Advocacy

Description

About Light for the World

Light for the World (LFTW) is a global disability and development organisation whose vision is an inclusive society where no one is left behind. They enable essential eye health services and help empower people with disabilities in some of the world's poorest regions. As an employer, Light for the World aims to foster a workplace where individual differences are recognised, appreciated, and respected in ways that utilise each person's talents and strengths.

Purpose of the Role

The International Director of Impact and Advocacy is a new position focused on enhancing the global reputation of Light for the World (LFTW). This role links the organisation's internal experts and outside partners to ensure its efforts make a sustainable impact in line with its goals.

Externally, this position represents Light for the World in different communities and networks, advocating for the organisation's mission. It works closely with the communications and advocacy teams to share LFTW's methods, standards, and programme areas with external partners.

Internally, this role oversees the Quality and Innovation Team to ensure LFTW's programmes meet regulations and follow innovative approaches. It also collaborates with the Monitoring, Evaluation, Research, Learning, and Adaptation team to ensure activities are strategic and effective.

Additionally, this position is key in the Partnerships, Programmes, and Development team, helping with programme acquisition and ensuring activities align with LFTW's strategy and standards. By working closely with the fundraising and communications teams, internally and in LFTW's country offices, this position ensures consistent representation of the organisation's methods and standards externally.
